DOMINOES

Cut out all the pieces and place them facing down on the table. Mix them up, without flipping them over. Each player takes 7 pieces and gathers them in their hand, without letting anyone else see what they have. If there are less than 4 players, the remaining pieces stay in a pile on the table. The first player begins by putting down a "double" piece. (If they don't have one, the next player makes the opening move.) The next player puts down a piece with a matching image right next to the first piece. The game continues this way one move at a time. If at any time a player can't put down a piece with a matching image, they pick from the pile of extras until they get one that can be played. The first one to use all of their pieces and yell out "Dominoes!" wins.
